Agency Background

The City of Maple Grove operates the Maple Grove Transit (MGT) system offering commuter express and demand response services. The City contracts with transit companies to provide these transit services. The City of Maple Grove established MGT in June 1990.

Presently, MGT has commuter express service to and from Minneapolis utilizing 54 round trips on five routes. The commuter service utilizes five park-and-ride lots. MGT also offers a demand response program called MY RIDE using seven small buses, which travels within the City of Maple Grove, the City of Osseo, Hennepin Technical College/ North Hennepin Community College, and Starlight Transit Station (Brooklyn Park).

Future Needs – Buses

The express bus fleet consists of eighteen 66-passenger articulated buses, thirteen 45-passenger coach buses, eight 38-passenger standard transit buses and one 25-passenger shuttle bus. There are seven mini-buses for the dial-a-ride. MGT is looking to add three small buses to their fleet.

Future Needs – Facilities

The MGT Station opened in December 2003 on Route 781. This facility has a three-level 926-stall parking ramp and an indoor, climate-controlled waiting area.

Parkway Station, a 500-stall surface lot park-and-ride facility opened in October 2010. Phase II added a one level ramp for 300 additional vehicles, which opened in July 2014.

Future Needs – Operations

MGT needs additional funding to expand local transit services to help address Maple Grove employer transportation needs such as first mile/last mile services and a local circulator.
